Imagine if you had a network of wealthy and successful Christian friends always willing to help you with sage advice whenever you needed it. Friends who have been around the block a few times. And, yet refuse to compromise their stand for the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Now imagine these seasoned experts sharing their life secrets with you, every week, all year long...

How successful would you become? How much happier would you be?

Have you ever stayed awake at night and wished – even prayed – that somehow, some day, you would ...

- Have more than enough money in the bank, so you'd never had to worry about money again.

- Enjoy a serene, peaceful home life. A safe haven of Christian love that you look forward to coming home to every night.
- Wisely apply the Word of God in a way that brings true victory in your life. And be able to share that with your family and friends?

If so, I would like to introduce you to an exciting new website and e-newsletter. It's called Wisdom's Edge and Steve Kroening, former editor of Christian Business magazine, started it to help Christians like you make wise decisions.

You see, some of the most important spiritual battles you'll ever be involved in here on earth are the decisions you make each and every day. Each wise decision you make has a direct impact on your success here and in heaven. But each foolish decision can cost you dearly.

Wisdom's Edge is designed to help you cut through the lies and see the truth in a very practical way. Steve and his team are life-seasoned experts who have a wealth of biblical insights. And they want to help you with the day-to-day decisions you have to make about your money, your health, and your relationships.

William Kruidenier, co-author of The Life Promises Bible and Living What You Believe -- Wisdom From the Book of James, says:

“This is great! I've subscribed to Michael Masterson's Early to Rise eZine for a couple of years, but it is definitely not from a Christian point of view. Besides, his is daily, which means I don't read a lot of them. But a weekly is great -- especially given the content you include.”

Dustin Devos, host of Creations Adventures Outdoor TV, says:

“I love Wisdom's Edge. I have been forwarding it on to as many people as possible.”

Dr. Hank Sloan, physician for the Washington Redskins, says:

“Wow. This is great!!”

And John Elvin, book author and former Washington Times and Insight magazine columnist, says:

“Wisdom's Edge is a healthy serving of practical lessons and inspiring sermonettes; it's succinct enough to leave you hungry for the next one.”

These successful people have found the same practical information you'll find each week in Wisdom's Edge.

You Deserve Answers ... Here's How to Get Them

You work hard. You put your family first. You do your best every day to be the Christian God intended you to be.

But it's hard sometimes. Life has a nasty habit of frustrating you. Little irritations build on top of one another, such as...

- The washer and the dryer both go on the fritz in the same week the transmission in your car breaks down.
- A certified letter just arrived this afternoon – from the IRS.
- You already don't have enough time for your family or yourself. But your pastor just volunteered you to lead a new support group at church. Oh yeah, the first meeting is tomorrow night.
- Your spouse's doctor just called. Needs to see her right away. Something about a lump. And you're both terrified.

When these things happen – and happen, they will – what will you do? How should you act? Speak? Pray? Does the Bible have answers for these things?

Yes it does! And Steve will bring them all straight to your inbox every week in a unique way that you can understand and use. Today!

I Want You To Know Steve Kroening Like I Do

I've known Steve Kroening for some time. And I can tell you that he is a true fountain of wisdom. But what's truly amazing about Steve is how willing he is to share everything he knows.

Not too long ago, Steve approached me with an idea: to write down all of the Christian wisdom and deep, practical insights he has learned from his vast network of highly successful friends.

The idea was to share everything he has picked up over the years to give Christians that "little edge" in life. Things that will bring real and remarkable improvement to the lives of Christians like you and me.

What Steve knows about personal finance, relationships, and how they relate to Lord Jesus could fill volumes. Chatting with Steve every week about these issues is like getting a golf lesson every week from Tiger Woods. You'd be crazy not to listen.

And now, in the pages of Wisdom's Edge, he has opened up his heart to share it all with you. And it won't cost you a penny.

Stop Learning Life's Lessons The Hard Way

They say, "Experience is the best teacher, as long as it's someone else's experience." There's no point in making the same mistakes that others know not to make. That's why Steve and his friends are so successful.

The secret lies in the way they apply their Christian faith to everything they do. They've walked through the minefields of life. They know where to step. And where not to. Now, for the first time, they're willing to share it all with you in Steve Kroening's Wisdom's Edge.

So why continue to live your life the hard way? Let Steve Kroening and his network of high-powered friends give you the edge you need to succeed. In the coming issues of Wisdom's Edge, you'll get...

- Financial secrets that will put more money in your pocket. You'll always be able to do more to further the kingdom of God if you've got more financial resources to do it with.
- Health secrets to make sure you live a happy, healthy, energetic life. And insulate you from anything that threatens to make you old before your time.
- Relationship secrets to keep your marriage and home vibrantly alive with Christian love and respect.
- Secrets of wisdom that throughout history have served Christians well. And will continue to serve those who are willing to learn from them.

If you're a Christian, you know where you will spend eternity. And you know it will be greater than anything you could dream of. Now, let Steve make you more successful here on this earth.
